

Dear participant,

Welcome to Dubrovnik! You are in one of the most wonderful places of Croatia, with rich history and beautiful sites. "Non bene pro toto libertas venditur auro" or "Freedom is not to be sold for all the riches in the world" is the message that is engraved on the doors of the Lovrijenac fortress. For centuries it was the stalwart defender of Dubrovnik's freedom, and probably best describes the soul and atmosphere of this ancient Mediterranean city.

Hotel information: Valamar Lacroma Resort

Tel: +385 52 465 400
Email: reservations@valamar.com
Web: www.valamar.com

Travel arrangements:

- By plane: a driver (holding NALAS banner) will pick you up at the airport
- By car: see map below

Social events:

- Saturday: Site visit to the old Town of Dubrovnik and dinner.
- Sunday: Visit to Mali Ston (a medieval fortified town), taste some sea food; visit a traditional olive oil production and have dinner.

If you need help, please do not hesitate to call the organizers at:

+ 385 91 5067909 (Mladen Ivanović)
+ 389 70 306353 (Zoran Gligorov)

Enjoy your stay in Croatia!

Dubrovnik, also known as "the Pearl of the Adriatic" is a city on the Adriatic Sea coast in the very south of Croatia, positioned at the terminal end of the Isthmus of Dubrovnik. Its population was 43,770 in 2001, 88.39% of which Croats.

The walled city of Dubrovnik

Flag

Coat of arms

Mayor of Dubrovnik: Andro Vlahušić

Republic of Croatia

Capital: Zagreb
Official Language: Croatian
Government: Parliamentary republic
President: Stjepan Mesić
Prime Minister: Ivo Sanader

Currency: Kuna (HRK)
1 EUR: 7.235 HRK
Time Zone: CET (UTC+1)
- Summer: CEST (UTC+2)